Dear Mr. Cohen,

Ed Maseuka informs me that you have a rather wide selection of half cents for sale. Although I purchased a few at the Moreira & Robinson sales, I still need the RARE ones - 1804-C2, 1805-C2, 1806-C3, 1808-C1, & 1809-C1 plus many others.

Hope that you will have a few to offer in a grade and price that I can afford. Will be looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Ken Seachman

Dear Roger

At present I'm interested in some of the already rare varieties of half cents. Am hoping to obtain an 1804-C2 within a year or two.

Could you send me a photo of your duplicate 1794-C1b? also price.

Will try to obtain a photo of the 1808-C1 that I saw a few days ago. If so, I'll send you a copy.

Should you have any other rare varieties available, from your duplicates, or perhaps some offered to you, I would appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely

Ken Seachman

Dear Roger,

I just returned from the Coin Show in Baltimore where I purchased an 1804-C7 half cent graded FINE-15. The coin DOES NOT have a right foot on the R in LIBERTY as pictured in your catalogue. I notice that all of the other SPIKED CHIN obverse dies do not have the right foot on the R. Also your coin does not have the die break on the I in LIBERTY as pictured in your catalogue (I to bust).

Several weeks ago I was given a 1797-C3 half cent to attribute. It appears to me to be a C3c although the gripped edge is not completely around the coin. It appears on two different locations and the two portions of the gripped is not uniform with each other. On portion of the gripping [illegible] and the other is more coarse. It does not appear to be altered in any way. The coin is not for sale at present although I am prepared to be offered the coin when available.

I have heard nothing more on the 1805-C/1 that I mentioned to you. I still need this one.

I am very much interested in purchasing some of the rare varieties of half cent. One of the coins I need is the 1809-C/1 which you may have available. Do any of your 1804-C/2's available yet?

Please comment on the 1804-C/1 & 1797 C/2c.

Hope that I can purchase some of your rare duplicates for my collection.

Regards,
Len Trachtman

Dear Mr. Cohen;

I would like to add several ½ cents to my collection that I need. Do you have any of the 1794 B's available? Also I need 1802 c1, 1804 c2, 1806 - c3, 1808 c1 & 1831 c1.

You mentioned that you could use a 1796 HALF DOLLAR. If necessary I may be willing to trade my 1796 ½ dollar on one of your duplicate 1804 c2's or something else that I need for my ½ cent collection.

Do you have (or know of) any of the others available for sale or trade?

Please let me hear from you.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Ken Seachman
